

The city of Alger

where everyone has the beauty

where there is much diversity and everyone has solidarity.

If you come here, people will be kind but be nice, you don't know their mind

there aren't many buildings but you can hear beautiful voices sing.

Many pollution mean dire air and we don't have money, that's not fair but the landscape here is free there are more nature than in London like trees.

I have been there, it was amazing !

With my cousins, I was playing this city is so perfect.
